Machines Collide On Springs Road

Parente's Ford Car is Struck by Big Machine
Driven By Garry Bartoli

In a collision near the Oaks on the springs road last Saturday night the Ford car of Louis Parente, which was about to turn into the resort owned by Mrs. Farrell, was struck by a touring car driven by Garry Bartoli, who claims he was unable to avoid the accident which Parente's turning into the Oaks brought about. Bartoli thought Parente was going on to Verano, and as the latter turned into the Oaks, the collision resulted. The occupants were thrown out of Parente's machine and Mrs. Bartoli, formerly Miss Rose Basaglia, was pitched out of her husband's car as in trying to avoid the collision he swung into the ditch and hit a culvert.

Mrs. Louis Parente suffered very severe injuries, her ribs being broken and her lungs punctured, besides having sustained a broken collar bone. Miss McCulloch, also one of the Parente party, suffered a compound fracture of the arm.

The injured were rushed to Sonoma, where they were attended by Dr. Thomson and Hays. Mrs. Parente was removed to a San Francisco hospital the day after the accident, and her condition has been critical.

Parente's car was badly damaged. Had Bartoli's Hudson been going at a high rate of speed all would probably have been fatally injured. Mrs. Bartoli was rendered unconscious but was found to have suffered no serious injury.

MRS. LEISER'S BIRTHDAY

The birthday of Mrs. Philip Leiser on Tuesday night was made the occasion of a very delightful surprise party.

Those present were: Mrs. Jos. B. Small, Mrs. L. Breitenbach, Anita E. Liser, Gladys Small, Rose Bartoli, Lester Small, Clara Peterson, Gertrude Breitenbach, Eleanor Kehoe, Dolores Breitenbach, Kathryn Gallagher, Josie Kennel, Josie Steiner, Vonnies Hilton, Alpha Johnson, Nellie Peterson, Geo. Liser, Archie Revie, Ralph Evans, Joe Andrioux, Pete Boccoli, Garry Bartoli, Newt. Dal Pogetto, Otto Waldorf, Edward Pohley, Mary Leiser, Phil Liser and Emile Andrioux.

ACCUSED ERSTWHILE

FRIEND OF THEFT

Morris Blievas, a guest at one of the summer resort farms, near El Verano, swore to a warrant Wednesday for the arrest of his erstwhile friend and room mate, Bennie Silva, of San Francisco. Morris says Bennie decamped with his money, diamonds and other jewelry and that he drove him to the train and almost kissed him goodbye, little dreaming that he would be "shy" all his valuable, though the guy whom he had chummed with and whom he now alleges trimmed him to the extent of about $160. He alleges that Silva took $60 in cash, diamonds, cuff buttons and rare African coins.

STEVE'S GRILL TO OPEN HERE

Steve Anazitos, who was burned out at Boyes Springs last week has decided to locate in Sonoma and will open his grill in the Bullotti building which is one of the best locations in town. Steve is fitting up the place and will open very shortly assuring his former patrons and friends that the high standard which gained him such popularity at Boyes will be maintained in the new place and that he will do his best to please the public. Steve will also continue his grill at the Boyes Springs Club House which will be a great convenience to the summer folk.

A marriage license was issued in San Francisco Tuesday to Chris Senevers of this valley, and Miss Ethel Shane, daughter of Mrs. Gori, formerly of the Palace Hotel. The popular couple, who gave their ages as 18 and 24, respectively, have been engaged to be married for some time.

Walter Brazzi, of Vallejo, arrested by Deputy Sheriff Murray some weeks ago for traveling in excess of 20 miles an hour through Boyes Springs, plead guilty before Judge Small and was fined $10.

SONOMA ANSWERS HUMANE CALL

RESPONSE TO RED CROSS APPEAL HERE GRATIFYING

Sonoma Valley's response to the Red Cross appeal is very gratifying, and with the perfected organization there will undoubtedly be a fine showing made by the people of this section and everyone is entering into the work with a fine spirit and enthusiasm. Mr. Plover and Mark L. McDonald, of Santa Rosa, addressed a well attended meeting last Friday night and there was another good meeting last night.

The Hundred Million Drive is to occupy the energies of the men-folk while the committees of ladies continue to roll up an increased membership.

Miss Edna Cooper thoroughly organized her committee before leaving for Santa Cruz on her vacation.

Mrs. Frank Thompson is doing excellent work in her district and securing many new members.

A contribution of $10 has been received from Mrs. Burlingame, $5 from Ed. Lindley of the Sonoma Feed Store, $100 has been pledged by J. K. Bigelow and $20 by the Misses Kenyon.

The Sonoma Sportsmen Association through Mr. John Wadsworth, donated $6, which remained in the treasury of the disbanded club.

Mrs. W. Clements is assisting Mrs. Erazmus in her district and Miss Evelyn Goldsmith is a valuable aid to Mrs. L. H. Green.

Mrs. G. H. Hotz and Mrs. Ralph Hotz are working earnestly and also Mrs. Wm. Rambo, Mrs. Hatton, Mrs. Chas. Cutter, Mrs. F. T. Duh ring and other ladies interested in this great work.

The following committees offer ample opportunity for activities:

1. Civilian Relief—Local, national disaster; dependent families of soldiers.

2. Military Relief—Classes for aid, hygiene and home care for sick; dietetics; hospital supplies, including many sorts of bandages; splint pillow; operating room linen for surgeons, nurses and patients; and convalescent gowns; hot water and ice bag covers; tray cloths and dust cloths; towels; oakum pads and many other articles, each and all of which have to be made according to specific directions from army and navy headquarters in Washington.

The Committee on Finance is another and very important section of activity, demanding service that only men of earnestness and business experience can render.

Don Bluxome, popular young student and son of the superintendent of Sobre Vista, was thrown off a wagon Thursday and run over. Dr. Hays attended him and found no broken bones, although the patient is badly bruised.

A dividend will shortly be declared at the First National Bank.

"Some Dance" tonight at Pan-crazi's auditorium with the usual good time and fine music. A big crowd will be on hand; Santa Rosa sending many auto parties who are to take in the enjoyable affair.

ALLEGED O'BRIENS VIOLATE INJUNCTION

As an aftermath to a complaint brought to the attention of the authorities at Santa Rosa Saturday by Attorney Arthur Shannon, of the Sonoma Valley Water, Light and Power Company, against Nellie O'Brien, et al., accused of violating an injunction restraining them from diverting water from Lennox Creek, Bruce Weatherhead swore to a warrant for Nellie O'Brien's arrest on Tuesday before Judge Small. Weatherhead is resident agent of the company, which operates above El Verano and alleges that defendant in defiance of the restraining order diverted waters from this course about one-half mile above Lennox Creek, where flumes and ditches were constructed.

Judge Seawell's restraining order issued last year forbade the O'Briens from taking water for any purpose other than domestic and culinary.

The water has been a bone of contention for some years and when the dry summer makes the supply limited trouble invariably results.

Nellie O'Brien was released on her own recognizance and has retained Attorney Frank Sprague to defend her.

SPEED COP IN CRYING NEED

With the continued toll being paid to speed fiends in Sonoma Valley, every week recording automobile accidents with dire consequences public opinion has risen up as a unit and demands the appointment of a speed cop to cope with the situation.

Mrs. Emma Fetters went to Santa Rosa Monday to find out what steps would be necessary to secure the traffic officer for the resort district.

Sonoma Valley springs and resorts are the mecca of hundreds of motorists every week whose safety must no longer be jeopardized by the few reckless drivers, who make travel unsafe for everybody, including pedestrians and vehicles. Mrs. Fetters was advised that a petition would have to be presented to the supervisors at their next meeting.

County Probation Officer Plover is to have the case of an El Verano boy charged with cruelty to animals turned over to him. The lad is accused of cutting off the tail of a cow.

The condition of Mrs. Louis Parente's injuries in the automobile accident is reported as much improved.

BALL TEAM DISBANDED

The Sonoma Base Ball Team, which is the best team the valley has ever had, will disband on account of the lack of proper support. The boys were beaten by Ukiah 8 to 7 after a magnificent game, in which they were the winners up to the very last minute, when Ukiah scored. The Ukiah press panned Sonoma's umpire, but our boys say it was unwarranted as Otto was alright.

Emmet Mullen, Joe Ryan, Bill Ashe and John Mohr attended the Elk's initiation Wednesday in Santa Rosa. Mr. Mohr joined the order.

Rev. T. P. Moran affiliated with the Benevolent Order of Elks at Santa Rosa Wednesday evening and gave a fine talk on the merits of this splendid organization.

FIGHT FOR WINE AND BEER

The food control bill now in the lime light at Washington has developed drastic prohibition phases. The measure to stop the manufacture of drink has run the gamut from the prohibition of making any food stuffs, including grapes, into drinkables, to the eliminations of grains and hops for liquid manufacture.

The senate seems to favor the tolerance of grapes and the idea of empowering President Wilson to exercise his judgment in the matter of malt and vinous beverages. It is conceded that the fight for hops will be a close one, although the California delegation, including Congressman Lea, is making a hot fight to protect the light alcoholic beverages from the onset of the radicals. In their haste the prohibition advocates forgot to provide for restricting the sale of the liquor now on hand, which would result in creating a monopoly which would be extremely dangerous and profitable to a few manipulators.

The liquor people, the growers and the producers are being harassed from every quarter and the congressional action may spell ruin for the hop and grape growers of California should the more drastic of the amendments be adopted.

CALISTOGA TO CELEBRATE JULY 4TH

The citizens of Calistoga, had they been told of it three months ago, would never have believed that so many world-famous attractions could be secured for the COUNTRY CIRCUS JULY 4TH.

MOUSNIER & MADAME E. QUESTRIENNE, the marvelous French riders, with their company of eight professional horsemen and ladies, will appear in the ring in a thrilling and beautiful act.

Sir Henry Van Tassel, who has made many more parachute jumps from a balloon than any other living person, and who has appeared before all the crown heads of Europe, will be in Calistoga to thrill all who see him.

Dainty Lorraine DeMontfort, the premier Danseuse at the San Francisco Exposition, and who easily won all the prizes offered there for artistic dancing, has consented to give her performance in Calistoga.

DAN RICE, the veteran clown, who has made more people forget their sorrows than any other person living, and who was the star with Barnum & Bailey's circus forty years ago, has consented to appear. Mr. Rice is now some eighty years old but still retains much of his old time vigor in spite of his age. His voice has remained with him and he will no doubt sing.

Space forbids mentioning many other attractions, such as the famous Russian Ballet, the living Statuary, marvelous trained ducks, trained animals, etc.

No extra charge at the hotels and restaurants for service.

Dancing all the afternoon and evening.

DEATH COMES TO JACK FALLON

Jack Fallon, the popular mixologist at the Villa Savoy, died Saturday in El Verano from diabetes. Fallon was known to have a family somewhere in the state and although Louis Wachlen, proprietor of the resort, tried to get in touch with them before the funeral Tuesday, and inserted the notice of his death in the San Francisco papers, none of his relatives could be located. Wachlen therefore made the funeral arrangements and saw to it that his faithful employee was buried with the last sad rites of the church of his faith, and was followed to his last resting place in the quiet cemetery by friends from here and El Verano.

Joseph Vella of the Mission Creamery was in San Francisco on business last Saturday. The local plant is now making about half a ton of cheese daily and the product is in the greatest demand.

County Fair at Race Track

Agricultural Club Will Cooperate With Sonoma Driving Club in Exhibition of Products, Livestock, etc., in September

The High School Agricultural Club, which has given several very creditable fairs the past few years, is to enlarge the scope of the exhibition this year and in conjunction with the Sonoma Valley Driving Club, will hold a county fair at the race track where there will be an exhibit of farm produce, live stock, racing and other features. The fair will probably be held the last Friday and Saturday in September.

The Agricultural Club contest this year promises to produce some record yields and Sonoma Valley is justly proud of the work, whose value was recognized here long before the present war boom. The diversified products of this section as shown at the High School fairs in the past has been a revelation to many of our own residents.

Animal husbandry is now a part of the agricultural curriculum at the school and has resulted in awakening keen interest in live stock.

The fine additions and importations of improved stock to Sonoma Valley has brought up the standard and the fair will, no doubt, be of the greatest value in spreading the gospel of better herds.

DEATH OF MRS. SWITZER

News was received today of the death of Mrs. Eugenia Wilson Switzer, one of the pioneer women of Sonoma, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. C. Boehringer, in San Francisco Thursday.

Since the death of her husband W. H. Switzer, last November, she has rapidly declined.

Deceased was born in Tennessee in 1849 and came to California in an ox team in 1856. She settled on a ranch near Sonoma in the early days and resided here until a few years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Switzer celebrated their golden wedding anniversary in 1914. The late Mrs. Switzer is survived by the following children: B. W. and W. A. Switzer, Mrs. J. M. Donahue, of Napa; Mrs. F. C. Boehringer, of San Francisco; and Mrs. W. F. Hazelberg of Newberg, Oregon.

EPH. WEISS, the expert refracting optician will be in Sonoma at the Union Hotel on July 2nd. Permanently located in the Whitney Bldg., 133 Geary St. S. F.

GLEN ELLEN HAS RED CROSS

Th ladies of the Glen Ellen Woman's Improvement Club met at the home of Mrs. C. C. O'Donnell last Friday afternoon and took preliminary steps to organize a branch of the Red Cross. They were addressed by Mr. Plover of Santa Rosa who awakened great interest in the work.

Mrs. O'Donnell told of her activities in San Francisco where she is a very active worker. The hostess added pleasure to the afternoon by serving delicious ice cream and cake to the club members and their guests at the worthy gathering.

The Red Cross Organization for Glen Ellen will be completely effected at the next regular business meeting of the club.

Friday night, July 6th., the Epworth League will give a basket social at the home of Mrs. Fields near El Verano. Each girl bring a basket with lunch for two. Leave the M. E. Church at 7:45. A good time is in store for all.

The Test of Patriotics This Fourth of July

This Fourth of July will be a test for all Americans and will be a day to reflect on the depth and reality of our patriotism. As has been very aptly remarked it takes a great deal more power to develop light than to produce noise and in the present exigency, light is what we want—light to illumine the whole world. Our glorious Statue of Liberty is emblematic of the world under democracy, whose effulgence must embrace the nations of the earth. A sane Fourth is what we have been preaching for some years past and it is to be fully realized this year, not only a sane Fourth but a serious, practical day of reflection, not of idealistic sentiment but on the duties clearly set before us. These duties are manifold and may involve hardship and must mean endless sacrifice.

The full meaning of our country and the love for it which we have reiterated from the rostrum and song books every July for years past is to be demonstrated. Let us spend this Fourth of July interrogating ourselves as to how we are fulfilling our duties, how we are proving our love and loyalty to the country whose stars and stripes we glory in.

First, how are we meeting the food situation? We know that this phase of the war is all important, that the country's most distinguished and experienced citizen has been given extraordinary powers to advise and embrace necessary means to solve the problem which is expected to have more weight in the settlement of the conflict than any other thing. Mr. Hoover does not mince matters and has been prompt and positive in his advice and direction. Those who have loved to eat must change their philosophy of life eliminating self and sharing with others what they have been accustomed to covet. Those who have lived to sell must also change the point of view which has brought the middleman into such disrepute. You must be a producer to be a patriot now adays.

Another thing you will be called upon to do is to be tolerant of mistakes made by our country in the great drive we are making for that prayed-for early victory. Everything the United States demands of us is to that end and we must work in harmony with patience and forbearance.

Great responsibilities rest on our representatives at Washington and the full force of our responsibilities in electing men to serve in such high places is being brought home to us in this crisis. The responsibilities of democracy are insistent. Time honored traditions and precedent have been weighed by this Congress, emergency measures advocated and adopted, new planks added to our national platform. Let us hope they will all work out to a good end and that emotion will not unseat reason or that fanatics will not be permitted to put their slogan, 'carpe diem' into effect. The fanatic who recognizes the psychological advantage and tries to push it at this time in the guise of patriotism is a rank traitor to his fellow citizens. To mislead the country now, to create unnecessary hardships and conditions is criminal.

Another subject for reflection on July Fourth, this year, is your "bit" for humanity. Can you look the stars and stripes over, look the young soldier or sailor in the eye and the mothers of the boys who are gone to the front with a frank assuring expression that you have done your part in that protection of them which is your sacred duty? Have you been a volunteer or a cheerful responder in the Red Cross campaign? Are you a manly man or a womanly woman? If so let the benediction pass your lips that this great work is so finely organized that you are thus able to give help, to find expression for the fine impulses within you through this noble organization.

If you have not demonstrated your desires to help the sufferings of war let the minute grow no older but straightway get the thrill of participating in this greatest attribute to humanity.

By these things and kindred ones shall you know him—the patriot—on this Fourth of July in 1917.

WEDDING BELLS FOR WAYNE BATCHELOR

Young Soldier to Wed Mountain Belle After Romantic Courtship.

The romantic and beautiful scenery of Butte County has been the setting of the courtship of Sonoma's first soldier boy, Wayne Batchelor and Miss Laura Renolds, a mountain belle of that country, which culminated in a pretty wedding on Thursday.

Wayne was one of the first to enlist in Company E and served with credit down on the Mexican border. When the boys were mustered out he signed up as a reservist and was called again for duty at the declaration of war. After a few weeks at the Presidio he went north and there, in the heart of California's most beautiful country met his fate. The sweet pretty girl who fell in love with the dark-eyed young soldier is the daughter of prominent old residents of that section who welcome the patriotic boy from Sonoma County into their family. In writing of his bonny bride-to-be, Wayne did not forget to add a line about the fine mother-in-law he was getting.

Mr. Batchelor's mother and brother Elmer went up to the wedding, leaving here for the north on Wednesday.

Norman Cowan, one of Sonoma Valley's most popular enlisted boys, came up from San Diego on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Cowan, prior to his departure to Colorado.

Harold Koenig, popular young man of Boyes Springs has been on the sick list and under the care of Dr. Hays.

Joe Dupon's Hamburg Belle won second money in the three-quarter mile race at the park stadium, San Francisco, Sunday, at the races given under the auspices of the San Francisco-California Driving Club. The Petaluma horse made a fine showing. Rodney Patchen was first Little Jack third and Victor Pointer fourth.

Duffy Lewis sent a $50 contribution to the Red Cross.

Today it's a battle of wits—and brains win. Much and brains don't count so much as they used to. The great question now is "What do you know?" It draws the line between failure and success, between a poor job and a good one.

What do you know? Have you special ability? Could you "make good" in a big job right now? BRIDGES - FRECK NUPTIALS TUESDAY

Romance of Youth Culminates in Wedding

The friends and neighbors of Mrs. Minnie Bridges of El Verano got a delightful surprise this week when they were taken into the always interesting secret of her approaching marriage to Louis Freck, of Cincinnati, Ohio and on Tuesday evening they were bidden to the wedding which was solemnized in a quiet but impressive fashion at the home of her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Cliff. The wedding was the happy culmination of a romance long years ago back East where they were sweethearts. They drifted apart and each married but were destined eventually to meet and wed. Mr. Freck lost his wife and Mrs. Bridges was a widow when they renewed the old romance upon meeting here in California some months ago. The congenial couple decided to marry and it was indeed a happy wedding solemnized Tuesday last by Rev. Henry Waltz of this place. The Cliff home was beautifully decorated in pink and white blossoms and under a festive wedding bell with little Thelma Cliff as flower girl and Mr. Bruce Weatherhead as best man the couple plighted their troth. Mr. Cliff gave the bride away and there was much congratulation and hearty felicitation after the ceremony. A fine wedding supper followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Freck have gone to Southern California on their honeymoon and after Mr. Freck, who is a retired business man of Cincinnati, disposes of his interests there, he will return with his wife to Sonoma Valley which their many well wishers will be pleased to learn they are to make their home.

NAVY RECRUITING OFFICERS DEPART FOR STOCKTON

The pleasant party of Naval Recruiting officers and their wives, who were stationed here last Sunday for Stockton where they opened offices. Paymaster Miller and Mrs. Miller with Chief Commissary Steward Willeford made many friends during their sojourn among us and enlisted the interest of many of our young men in the service.

Among those who enlisted were Theo Miles, the shoemaker, who advertises in other columns the sale of his stock and the fact that his wife will take in dressmaking while he goes to war so here is your chance to give worthy aid to a woman who is to do her "bit" bravely.
Will Perry, one of our popular boys also joined the Naval Reserves and expects to be called any day.

WARNING

Ordinance No. 89 as published in these columns will be strictly enforced. Dumping of rubbish etc. near the city cemetery strictly forbidden.

TEACHERS REELECTED

The High School trustees met this week and reelected the entire staff of present teachers for next term's work. All are expected to return with the possible exception of Mr. Tracy, who is to take the examination for the artillery service of the U. S. A. and if accepted for enlistment will not accept the appointment here.

NEWS OF OUR SOLDIER BOYS

Frederick Duhring and Donald Campbell were finely entertained at Chicago, where the Chamber of Commerce treated the young enlisted men with the greatest courtesies. They were taken to the prominent Athletic Clubs, dined and given a big ovation in the wheat pits, stockyards, etc. The boys were to arrive at Allentown, Pa., last Friday night and may be somewhere on the ocean enroute to France by this time.
Mrs. Frederick Duhring, Jr., and her mother are visiting in Los Angeles.

OLIVIO MAFFEI JOINS NAVAL RESERVES

Enjoy themselves, and no one works but you,
And play at farming, with a wife to doubt you
And scorn at everything you do,
If you wait and not get tired of waiting,
To have your seeds sprout for the neighbors chicks
And swear not when pests so aggravating
You spend your hours slinging clods and bricks,
If you can have your precious garden raided
By half a dozen cousins, uncles, aunts,
And not appear discourteous, even jaded
When they step right on your tomato plants,
If you can bear to have the beans you've planted
Nipped by the frost just when they're growing good,
Or look for things o'er which you've sweat and panted
And find some gophers gobbled them for food,
If you can spend your wealth for seeds and sundries
And risk them on this game of pitch and toss
And work as hard on Sundays as on Mondays
But never breathe of profit or of loss,
If you can use up all the pep that's in you
Although you realize when you are gone
The world will still have plenty brain and sinew
And will not know that you were ever born,
If you can talk with wifely without blowing
The day you serve some lettuce you have grown,
And not bore folks to death just to be showing
That patch of sickly onions all your own,
If you can face a different foe each minute
And conquer with your brains and strong right arm,
Your little spot of earth and all that's in it
May partly feed you, yet not be a farm.

REGULAR MINISTER TO LEAVE TRINITY CHURCH

Rev. M. Rimer, priest in charge of Trinity Episcopal Church is to leave Sonoma and with his leave taking no regular resident pastor will be appointed as the congregation has decided to have services but twice a month by a visiting minister. The departure and death of several prominent church workers has been a severe blow to the little parish and it is deemed best to retrench on maintenance until more Episcopal families come into the valley and affiliate with the local church.

The valuable aid given by the various societies and organizations connected with Trinity such as the Guild and Auxiliary will be continued. The minister's salary has been $1200 per year.

Mr. Rimer has been a very capable and scholarly acquisition to the parish and his leave taking is much to be regretted.

"THE NEW CHIEF OF POLICE" AT BENEFIT

Boyes Springs Theatre will be the scene of a big benefit entertainment tonight, the proceeds of which are to go toward purchasing the much needed fire apparatus for the protection of that popular section of the Sonoma Valley.

A subscription has already been circulated and generous contributions made toward the acquirement of the necessary equipment. Through the interest of Mr. and Mrs. Landers Stevens tonight's splendid entertainment will add a substantial amount to the fund and all who attend the performance of "The New Chief of Police" and other features of the program will witness a rare treat. "The New Chief of Police" is one of the most popular and beautiful tabloid dramas ever offered and is one of Stevens' great successes. Dancing will conclude the evening's program.

ADVOCATES PURCHASE OF OLD VALLEJO HOME BY STATE OF CALIFORNIA

E. Hofer, editor of "The Manufacturer" that splendid publication which is the consistent friend and advocate of all industries has written a charming account of a recent visit to the Sonoma Valley.

Some excerpts from his article in the June number are as follows:
"The Sonoma Valley of California is one of the most beautiful regions out-of-doors."

"At El Verano by omnibuses (drawn by horses!) we slip over to the old historic town of Sonoma where the most northerly mission, San Francisco de Solano, was built in 1823, by Father Altamira, the tall priest. Here are some of the oldest memories and wineries of California."

"Vallejo's home at Sonoma was built in the early fifties and stands as built. It is of frame. The home of Mrs. Emparan is of brick imported from Europe and is a Swiss built house, upper story overlapping and with a tile roof. Each piece of wood is numbered and was brought ready-made from Europe. There are no nails, but the wooden frame is held together with wooden pins. The house is a rare one and a treasure that should be preserved for future generations."

"The state will undoubtedly acquire the old Vallejo home and should do so before the heirs are all dead and the place passes into the hands of speculators. Especially the daughter, who is here and keeps the home, should not be forgotten."

"One hears only the kindest words for General Vallejo. He was the soul of generosity, giving to the Americans with lavish hands and dining poor. His memory and his name are treasured."

"We saw the valley by motor in the moonlight—a perfect fairyland—endless cosy bungalow homes, pleasure resorts, health resorts, hot springs, lights, music and dancing everywhere. "There are old wineries here built of rock and wine cellars dug in the hills nearly a century old. I was given wine bottled from oak casks that were filled in 1860. Connoisseurs from the Atlantic states and Europe came here and hunt this region over for these old vintages."

"At Glen Ellen station, in the heart of the Sonoma valley, eight hundred feet above the village, is the home of Jack London, who has immortalized this part of California in his writings."

"It was a fitting home for this western titan among men and we caught the greatness of the man in his choice of a home."

"The double charm of the Sonoma valley lies in the fact that the mountains on either side are far enough away to relieve all their massive grandeur and yet near enough to not lose a single detail of their emerald beauty."

"Mrs. Shepard came five years ago to join London in his labors as an older sister would help a brother. She has become a successful farm manager—buys and sells, breeds and grows, his lines of pedigreed stock as he started them."

"Mrs. Jack London who sailed with him on his adventures; who circled the globe at his side; who was war correspondent; associate, companion, counselor guide,—is now writing his memoirs for the Macmillan Co. of New York. She loves and cherishes the monumental activities of his life. She is preparing a volume to be called Jack London in the Hawaiian Islands. It is her labor of love to do this for her beloved dead, as her life was one great labor of love for the beloved living."

Mr. Hofer is a keen analyst, quick to observe native charm and appreciate the best assets of various communities which he is visiting and reviewing in entertaining and instructive fashion in the current numbers of his publication.
